

Unit 10: Chapters 14 – 15: Overall Trends Thus Far (Sections A, B, C)

So many examples of “gilded” yet, perhaps to be more harsh, examples of “European Schizophrenia”

- 1. A “smoothing of the rough edges between the different “isms” Even some overlap between them. Changing definitions- good, HOWEVER...
- 2. Stability: European growth, advancement, progress, “globalism” good, HOWEVER...
- 3. Nationalism and more nations- good, HOWEVER
- 4. Populations trends- good, HOWEVER
- 5. Economic trends- industrialism, innovation, technology, new business models and interdependence, global trade, imperialism- good, HOWEVER
- 6. Democratic trends (Pages 584 – 600) good, HOWEVER...
- 7. Trends in science, philosophy, arts and culture, religion, government welfare, etc. (remainder of the unit) good, HOWEVER...

Always progress, HOWEVER...

- a. For whom?
- b. Will the “progress” and advancements be equitably distributed?
- c. Who will have to pay the price and bear the burden?
